

RISK AGREEMENT

This Risk Agreement aims to inform the Client about the risks associated with financial transactions carried out at DaoFinity. By using our services, the Client acknowledges and accepts these risks, assuming full responsibility for their investment decisions.

1. General Risk Warning

1.1. The Client acknowledges that trading in financial assets involves significant risks and that he/she may lose part or all of the invested capital.

1.2. DaoFinity does not guarantee any type of profit, and the Client is solely responsible for his/her operations.

1.3. The Client must carefully evaluate his/her experience, financial situation and risk tolerance before operating on the platform.

2. Risks Associated with the Financial Market

2.1. Market Volatility: Asset prices may fluctuate sharply due to economic, political factors and unexpected global events.

2.2. Liquidity: Certain assets may have low liquidity, making it difficult to execute orders at the desired prices.

2.3. External Factors: Central bank decisions, economic crises, geopolitical conflicts and regulatory changes can impact asset prices.

3. Leverage and Margin Risks

3.1. Leverage allows the Client to operate with a capital greater than the available balance, increasing both gains and losses.

3.2. The Client must constantly monitor his available margin to avoid automatic liquidations (stop-out).

3.3. If the margin level falls below the required minimum, the platform may close positions without prior notice, which may result in losses.

4. Technical and Execution Risks

4.1. The Customer acknowledges that technical failures may occur, including: Instability in the internet connection, preventing the execution of orders in real time.

Platform server outages, which may affect trading.

Slippage and requotes, where the order may be executed at a different price than requested due to market volatility.

4.2. The platform is not responsible for financial losses caused by external technical failures, including problems with the Client's computer or network.

5. Regulatory and Legal Risks

5.1. Regulations on trading in financial assets vary from country to country. The Client is responsible for ensuring that he/she complies with all applicable laws in his/her jurisdiction.

5.2. In the event of regulatory changes that impact the platform, some services may be modified or discontinued without prior notice.

6. Platform Disclaimer

6.1. DaoFinity is not responsible for:

Financial losses arising from the Client's trading decisions.

Unexpected changes in market conditions that affect operating performance.

Damage caused by third parties, including cyber attacks and service provider instability.

6.2. Any recommendation or analysis provided by the platform should not be considered financial advice. The Client must conduct his/her own analysis before making any investment decisions.

7. Recognition and Acceptance of Risks

7.1. The Client declares that he/she has read and understood all the risks described in this document and that he/she assumes full responsibility for his/her operations.

7.2. By continuing to use the platform, the Client acknowledges that he/she is operating on his/her own account, with no guarantees of profit or protection against losses.

8. Changes to the Risk Agreement

8.1. The platform may modify this agreement at any time, and it is the Customer's responsibility to monitor updates.
